Fly By Midnight

Oh, she's a prodigy, yeah
She talks exotically, yeah
And when she says my name, I'm famous, ooh
And they're like, "Who is he? Yeah"
We get no privacy, yeah
And when she rolls my way, I'm Vegas, ooh

She lay me down, down, down
Lay me down, down, down
Now it's a party
So tell me now, now, now
Tell me now, right now
Let's get it started

I've been kicking it with you all night
And you're showing me the moves you like
I've been learning from that body, body
Come on, won't you teach me, Miyagi
I've been watching all the things you do
It looks easy, it looks so brand new
I've been learning from that body, body
Come on, won't you teach me, Miyagi

Oh, she's a prodigy, yeah
She does it modestly, yeah
But when she acts like she ain't famous, whoa
That's the shit that I like Might have to make her my wife
She'll grab my last name, hyphenate it, oh

She lay me down, down, down
Lay me down, down, down
Now it's a party
So tell me now, now, now
Tell me now, right now
Let's get it started

I've been kicking it with you all night
And you're showing me the moves you like
I've been learning from that body, body
Come on, won't you teach me, Miyagi
I've been watching all the things you do
It looks easy, it looks so brand new
I've been learning from that body, body
Come on, won't you teach me, Miyagi

that body, yeah
oh, yeah, I'm learning from that body
are you alright?
come on, won't you teach me?
that body, yeah
oh, yeah, I'm learning from that body
are you alright?
come on, won't you teach me?
