

Try

Fly By Midnight

Hi hello
What's going on in your world tonight
Are you busy does it make you dizzy
Only tell me if you're so inclined

Hey you know
I bet you're better with it off your mind
But apathetic is the new aesthetic
So we never talk about it all the time

And I wanna believe it
But put your head inside my shoes and tell me what would you do
If you really saw how you're feeling
Maybe then you'd put the pressure in the top drawer of your dresser and...

Try just a little
Take my hand
And try just a little Understand
I'd die just a little
If you don't
So try just a little, try just a little

Try just a little
Take my hand
And try just a little
Won't you wonder
Why just a little
If you don't
So try just a little, try just a little

More
What good is breaking down your walls if you sneak out the door
Why try to face the music if it doesn't
Strike a chord
I know you wear that armor cause inside there's still a war
You ask me if I told you would you care, well of course

It's all I ever do
And all I wanna say
I'm further from the you I knew
The you I need to

Try just a little
Take my hand
And try just a little
Understand
I'd die just a little
If you don't
So try just a little, try just a little

Try just a little
Take my hand
And try just a little
Won't you wonder
Why just a little

If you don't
So try just a little, try just a little
