Bipolar

Fly Project

Yo soy bipolar, bipolar, bipolar
Puedo estar triste riendo
Y de alegria llorar

Yo soy bipolar, bipolar, bipolar
Puedo estar triste riendo
Y de alegria llorar

One day I wanna cerveza
One day I just wanna cry
Sometimes I'm sad and I'm happy for a while
Some people say I'm a genius
Some people people say I'm a drunk
But I don't care if they judge us
I don't mind

I see rainbows and unicorns everyday
I see the sunshine when it rains
When I feel lost I get up and I walk my way

Yo soy bipolar, bipolar, bipolar
Puedo estar triste riendo
Y de alegria llorar

Yo soy bipolar, bipolar, bipolar
Puedo estar triste riendo
Y de alegria llorar

I see women and women
Men and men
Feeling so different
But we're all the same
It's like we don't know
What we're looking for
I see people and people
So many names
Feeling so different
But we're all the same
It's like we don't know
What we're fighting for...

I see rainbows and unicorns everyday
I see the sunshine when it rains
When I feel lost I get up and I walk my way

Yo soy bipolar, bipolar, bipolar
Puedo estar triste riendo
Y de alegria llorar

Yo soy bipolar, bipolar, bipolar
Puedo estar triste riendo
Y de alegria llorar
