

Toe Tappin' Music

The Flying Burrito Brothers

Give me toe tapping, foot stomping, beer drinking songs
With a slight touch of the blues and some crying
Hear that doo, doo, doo, doop that's the music I like
That's the kind of song I like with my red wine

Early Monday morning 'til late Friday night
It's the working mans blues for me
But I'm gonna get right soon as I'm paid tonight
I'll be some ladies good news next week

Give me toe tapping, foot stomping, beer drinking songs
With a slight touch of the blues and some crying
I hear that doo, doo, doo, doop that's the music I like
That's the kind of song I like with my red wine, yeah

It was raining this morning, it rained hard last night
But honey it ain't raining no more
Lord, I don't mind being comfort when the weather gets too bad
But it's matrimony scares me so

Give me toe tapping, foot stomping, beer drinking songs
With a slight touch of the blues and some crying
I hear that doo, doo, doo, doop that's the music I like
That's the kind of song I like with my red wine, yeah

The red headed woman with the fire in your eyes
Won't you be so kind and ease my mind
Tell me I ain't crazy I'm just hypnotized
I did see what is on your eyes

And give me toe tapping, foot stomping, beer drinking songs
With a slight touch of the blues and some crying
I hear that doo, doo, doo, doop that's the music I like
That's the kind of song I like with my wine

I hear that doo, doo, doo, doop that's the music I like
That's the kind of song I like with my red wine
