

So you say you're done with
And nothing's workin' anymore
Won't stop and walk with me
Instead of walking' out the door
We could end our story here right now
It's hard to write when our house is burnin' down

Every time you start to cry or say goodbye, it's you and I
'cuz you are my love letter
Every tear becomes a line and I write yours as you write mine
Our words align love letter

It's been rough, you've had enough
I've driven you to memories
Moments came but not enough
To counterweight the drudgery

Waiting for new chapters to appear
The words will come if we don't end it here

Every time you start to cry or say goodbye, it's you and I
'cuz you are my love letter
Every tear becomes a line and I write yours as you write mine
Our words align love letter

There's pages that we can't erase
Phrases that seem out of place
Somehow it will make sense again
There's poetry in every scar
Becoming part of who we are
Your letter's still what I want to send
Every time you start to cry or say goodbye, it's you and I
'cuz you are my love letter
Every tear becomes a line and I write yours as you write mine
Our words align love letter

Bop bop bop ah ooh
Bop bop bop ah ooh
Bop bop bop ah ooh
(Every tear becomes a line)
Bop bop bop ah ooh
Bop bop bop ah ooh
Bop bop bop aaaaah
(Love letter)

Every time you start to cry or say goodbye, it's you and I
'cuz you are my love letter
Every tear becomes a line and I write yours as you write mine
Our words align love letter
