

Fire Fire

Flyleaf

Almost thought we made it home,
But we don't know this place at all,
That's enough now dry your tears
It's been a long 11 years

Fire, Fire Fire!
Fire from the tongues of liars,
You're ashamed of where you're from,
Crying cause your father's drunk
We can't die because we're young
At least that's what we heard in a song

Fire, Fire Fire!
Fire from the tongues of liars,
Fire, Fire Fire!
Fire from the tongues of liars

You're ashamed of what you've done,
Crying 'cause your father's wrong
Trying to be something new,
You'll see that you were something to prove

What you confuse for glory's fire,
Is fire from the tongues of liars
What you confuse for glory's fire,
Is fire from the tongues of liars

Oh such a rage
(fire, fire, fire)
Fire from the tongues of liars
Oh such a rage
(fire, fire, fire)
Fire from the tongues of liars
Oh such a rage
(fire, fire, fire, fire)
Fire from the tongues of liars
Oh such a rage
(fire, fire, fire, fire)
Fire from the tongues of liars

You're afraid of who you are Crying 'cause your father's done
Dreaming 'til you hit the truth
You'll find that you're nothing to lose
You'll find that you're nothing to prove
