Flymore

Wait, I'm in a cage
You put me in and when I dream
It's not my dream
And when I see, It's not through me
And when I talk, It's not my voice, there's no control
I have no choice, you did it all

Everytime I got my life
And you see I'm on my way now
Everytime you look at me
What a pathetic drug

Wait, I'm so confused
Your life's inside my every move
I'm so abused
That left so long, there's no control
Behind these walls
I'm on my own, I have no choice
I dug a hole and you will fall

Everytime I got my life
And you see I'm on my way now
Everytime you look at me
What a pathetic drug

I went through heaven back
And found myself in hole
You have to feel the same
I hate the piece I loved
You say, that something's wrong
That nothing's going on
You cannot feel the same
I hate your
Life (life, life, life, life)
Life (life, life, life, life)
Life (life, life, life, life)
Life (life, life, life, life)
I hate your life

Everytime I got my life
And you see I'm on my way now
What a pathetic drug
