

No One No More

Flymore

Why don't you ever try
To rearrange your lives
Who said you're on your way now?
You've been cast, astray
It's true we cannot fly
You see, that I despise
How you persuade the others?
Keep that in mind
You can't undo your life
It's so idealized
Fake plastic life around you
No one in sight
For now I realize
Why was I so despised
I've pulled myself together
I've tried, no lies

No one, no more
Feels so intense
To stop the time
No one, nowhere
Will get his life
A thousand times

Are you ready? Pick on
Are you ready? Pick on
Are you ready? Pick on
Are you ready? Pick on
I no longer care if I have your support
I'll prove you dead wrong

No one, no more
Feels so intense
To stop the time
No one, nowhere
Will get his life
A thousand times

Cry (sometimes)
What have you done? (I feel you)
What have you done?
I will not understand (not understand)
How it comes in the end
Live you life
I don't give a fuck
I can push it all away
Why am I crying again?

No one, no more
Feels so intense
To stop the time
No one, nowhere
Will get his life
A thousand times

(No one) Feels so intense
To stop the time

(No one) Will get his life
A thousand times
