

Hello Sunshine

Flyte

All your colours are coming out for me
'Til it's only you far as I can see
Will you drink my health, let me leave myself
In a trail of clothes on your floor, on your floor

Into the morning reborn
As of today, I'm yours
Turning with a big smile
Hello sunshine

All my futures are now in present tense
All this music has started making sense
Let me write on you, throw my light on you
Every word will be good as gold, good as gold

Into the pages I'll fold
All of the light you hold
Giving me your best line
Hello sunshine

Let me try you on, let me wear you out
Let me lean on your well-lit door, well-lit door

Into the morning reborn
As of today, I'm yours
I was lost a long time
Hello sunshine
