

Love Is An Accident

Flyte

Put a bolt up on the door
Sweep the glass out of the street
Lay a mattress on the floor
Secure the ground beneath your feet

'Cause love is an accident waiting to happen
To me and to you
Love is an accident waiting to happen

So bite your lip and hold your tongue
And be so careful what you say
Play the beat with muffled drum
And send the party guests away

'Cause love is an accident waiting to happen
To me and to you
Love is an accident waiting to happen

So don't you play that awful song
The one that cannot be unheard
The one that feels so right, it must be wrong
But still you sing along to every word

'Cause love is an accident waiting to happen
To me and to you
Love is an accident waiting to happen

And accidents will happen
Accidents will happen
Accidents will happen
