

Sometimes

Flyte

Sometimes
I forget how to love you
Sometimes I
I forget how to stay between the lines

I've been looking under tables
Untangling cables
I've been calling late at night
Five hours behind
I've been listening to reason
Been in-between for so long
But sometimes
I forget how to love you

Somedays (somedays)
I forget how to breath in (Somedays I)
Somedays I
I forget how to stay between the lines

I've been looking under tables
So willing and able
I've been calling late at night
In my shirt and tie
You've got nothing to stay for
I've been away for so long
But somedays
I forget how to greet you

(Sometimes I)
