Hard days will come and go
Hard days will follow you 'til the end
Before you run, you should know
Some things don't change on their own

Now we'll go, now we'll go
Now we'll go
Leave everything at the door
Leave everyone after all
Empty your mind, empty your mind

Right now, right here
Right now, right here
Right now, right here
Right now, right here

Put your face close to mine
Put your face close to mine
Tear me, tear me down
Look at me, raise your hand

Leave everything at the door
Leave everyone after all
Empty your mind, empty your mind

Right now, right here
Right now, right here
Right now, right here
Right now, right here

Right now, right here
Right now, right here
Right now, right here
Right now, right here

Leave everything at the door
Leave everyone after all
Empty your mind, empty your mind

Right now, right here
Right now, right here
