

Flutter

Foals

I was in the mid-air when you called me up to say
You had left for Rome when nobody was at home that day
Like a broken bird wing, run to make your heart sing There's wreckage on the ground, so I know you won't be found an yway

There is nothing in the mirror
There is nothing in the mirror
There is nothing in the mirror
There is nothing in the mirror

I thought I saw you there with black ribbons in your hair in th e morning
It was March or May, but I forget the day when it dawned
I wrap myself around the truth, you can't be found anymore
'Cause we all think that our lives will be longer than they are

Take off your mask [?]
And [?]

There's nothing in the mirror

There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror

There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror
There's nothing in the mirror

And even though I could not be there
You were always in my heart I swear
And even though I could not be there
You were always in my heart right there
