

Turn your teeth
Sew your heart and go and function, glow
So long, insomniac son
I've found better company
Turn your teeth outwards
Sew your heart and go and function, glow
So long, insomniac son
You'll never find me
Turn your teeth outwards
Sew your heart and go and function, glow
So long, insomniac son

So long, insomniac son
I found some better company
So long, insomniac son
I found the shoreline and the sea
Hide still
You can't run from me
Hide still
You can't run from me
Smile and try to fight
Too angry tonight
Do it all for show
Do it all for show
