Into the Surf

Foals

If you come again
I'll be sure to send the tide to come meet you
And if I come again
Please be sure to send the Moon to come meet me

I'll eat up all your pain
Take in all the blame
Be that someone to complain to
I'll be like water, when you rise
Plant a jasmine in the night

When I return
There's a moon pool on fire
Into the surf, again
There's a moon pool in bloom

If you come again
I'll be sure to send the tide to come meet you
And if I come again
Please be sure to send the Moon to come meet me

There's a lighthouse in the dark
A garden in the past
Under bruisings of a night sky
Be like water, when I rise
Plant a jasmine in the night
When I return there's a moon pool on fire
Into the surf, again
There's a moon pool in bloom
There's a serpent on the beach
If I'm out of reach
Place a garland in the sea for me

When the tide comes rolling in
Please be sure to send
Blood moon for me
A garland in the sea

And if I don't make it home
Wrap the jasmine 'round my bones
Blood moon for me
A garland in the sea

If I don't make it home
Wrap the jasmine 'round my bones
A garland in the sea
A blood moon for me

If I don't make it home
Wrap the jasmine 'round my bones
A garland in the sea
A blood moon for me

If I don't make it home
