Fog Lake

I will keep my love a lie
Just as long as you know I try
I will keep my love inside
I will try

It brings me up and it brings you down
Always losing things you want around
And happiness is never found
It's all lies

If I was king, now for a day
I'd wash all this pain away
But in hell I have to stay
It's all right
