

It Was Never Enough

Fog Lake

Living out my wasted time
Nowhere to run
Nowhere to hide

Staring through a hollow heart
We were all out of luck
It was never enough

Angels crying in the streets
Somewhere underneath
He's inside of me

Emptiness becomes a home
All you'll ever know
It was never enough

Sorry for what you became
But who can be blamed?
I know you know

Living in a hollow heart
We were fucked from the start
It was never enough
