

What else did you think could go wrong?
'Cause I've been trying to cope, but I can't stay strong
And what else do you think might be true?
'Cause I've been waiting too long for nothing to do

What did you think had happened to me?
Because I don't know if I should intervene
What makes you think that this might be true?
Because I've waited so long with nothing to do
