

Worn Out

Fog Lake

I hope you laugh a lot more now
You always looked so worn out
Hated to see your eyes like that
I hope he's keeping you warm now
Rose pedals to your door, how
Does he have all that I lack?

I keep the photos in a box now
They always looked a bit washed out
At least to me, but not to them
(At least to me, but not to them)
A little higher of a dose now
Sunrise 'til the sundown
Wouldn't know where to begin
(Wouldn't know where to begin)

I hope you laugh a lot more now
You always looked so worn out
Hated to see your eyes like that (Eyes like that)
I hope he's keeping you warm now
Rose pedals to your door, how
Does he have all that I lack? (All that I lack)

I hope you laugh a lot more now
You always looked so worn out
I hope you laugh a lot more now
