

Time Slips Away

Foghat

Slowly I move, with a dying day
Feelin' the caress of shadows grey
Turnin' off my thoughts and closin' up my mind
Leavin' the chaos and the noise behind

And time slips away
Time slips away
Time slips away
Time slips away

The dreams I have will fade in the morn'
No words are needed, soon it will be dawn
Things I see, real and unreal
As divide stops and night starts to heal

And time slips away
Time slips away
Time slips away
Time slips away

Still like a flower given peace of mind
My feet on the floor, I close the blind
Gone in the daylight, another day past
I lay down to sleep, I'm tired at last

And time slips away
Time slips away
Time slips away
And time slips away

Time slips away (hey, you know time slips)
Time slips away (time slips away)
Time slips away (oh, yeah)
Time slips away (time slips away)
Time slips away (time slips away)
Time slips away (time slips away)
Time slips away (time slips away)
Time slips away
