Soldiers

Wake up

Open your eyes, give us your hands
Take back that fire that burned our land into ashes
And make them anxious

Bring back the days, the love and the grace
Bring back the light for the whole human race
Erase the darkness

We feel the flames inside us rising
It's rising

Forever we stand united here together
'Cause we are the ones who play with fire
Trusting loves endless desire
So divine

Together we stand, stronger and bigger
Fight like tigers, release your inner desire
Now aim and fire

There is nothing left to fear now
You will find your strength
Just believe you'll see

Forever we stand united here together
'Cause we are the ones who play with fire
Trusting loves endless desire
A force so divine

Forever divine

Alright!
Together we stand stronger
And bigger
Let's fight like tigers!
Now aim and fire!

Forever we stand united here together
'Cause we are the ones who play with fire
We are the ones who play with fire
