

Here's The Thing

Fontaines D.C.

So here's the thing
I know you're watching
I feel your pain
It's mine as well
I know you're right
I know you're right, girl

And if you change your mind
I will be waiting
I know your thoughts
They're mine as well
I know you're right
I know you're right, girl

Shockin' pretty is that face you're makin'
Is there a sentiment you'd like to tell?
But if you tell them what the real story is
I'm afraid it wouldn't play that well
Oh no

So here's the thing
I need commotion
I know your thoughts
They're mine as well
I know you're right
I know you're right, girl

And if you change your mind
I will be waiting
To keep your pain
With mine as well
I know you're right
I know you're right, girl

Aren't people made to chime?
It never makes me happy anymore
Always singing in my mind
And talking just provokes it, ah

So here's the thing
I know you're watching
I feel your pain
It's mine as well
I know you're right
I know you're right, girl

To be anaesthetised
And crave emotion
So beautiful
To hurt so well
I know you're right
I know you're right, girl

So here's the thing
I know you're watching
