

Horseness Is The Whatness

Fontaines D.C.

Basics

Understanding basics

You'll never let your guard down

And always leave a card out

But always

The word is not so friendly

It brings some fucking baggage

It's a word that's used for lying

And never

Never I would trust

It sticks around for some

While always stays for none

Will someone

Find out what the word is

That makes the world go 'round

'Cause I thought it was love

But some say

That it has to be choice

I read it in some book

Or an old packet of smokes

Basics

I guess I get the gist

There's not that much to miss

You choose or you exist
