

If I Had

FO&O

Such a small word with a big meaning
So I paid no attention, until you put out the flame
So to me you left with no reason
Couldn't see your heart beating
Now I know you gon' to say

Apologies for not accepted
We said words, I don't regret this Pain and hurt that I reflect on you

If I had one more moment with you
(If I had, if I had)
Just one, what would I do
I would stop and start again
Never played the foolish games
But my sorry starts to lame
(They're to lame)
If I had
If I had

How we used to stay up all the weekends
Staring at the ceiling
That is how our love was played
And we used to laugh ourselves to sleep and
You and me in my dreams and
Can't believe its gone this way

And I just want to turn the time cause now I know

If I had one more moment with you
(If I had, if I had)
Just one, what would I do
I would stop and start again
Never played the foolish games
But my sorry starts to lame
(They're to lame)
If I had
If I had
(One more, if I had if I had)
(One more, if I had if I had)
(One more moment with you)
(If I had if I had)

Yeah eh yeah eh yeah eh yeah eh eh
Yeah eh yeah eh h h h h h

If I had one more moment with you
(If I had, if I had)
Just one, what would I do
I would stop and start again
Never played the foolish games
But my sorry starts to lame
(They're to lame)

If I had
If I had
