

My Beyonce

FO&O

When you walk into a crowded room
You're standing out
Cause you got it all professional
How you lay it down
Your confidence, like nothing else,
Can knock me out

You never fake it
You never ever fake it

'Bout you I wanna know everything
I can be your James Dean
So let me into that head of yours
Let me in

'Cause every king's gonna need a queen
You're lighting up like I've never seen
You know you're perfect, don't have to change
'Cause I would always stay, if you were my Beyoncé

If you were my Beyoncé
If you were my Beyoncé

You know you're perfect, don't have to change
'Cause I would always stay, if you were my Beyoncé

When numbers blow up on my phone
I'm freaking out, got me shivering
It's a crazy thing that I'm talking 'bout
A girl like you, with the things you do, can take the crown

Cause you're amazing
Yeah, you
Yeah, you're amazing

'Bout you I wanna know everything
I can be your James Dean
So let me into that head of yours
Let me in

'Cause every king's gonna need a queen
You're lighting up like I've never seen
You know you're perfect, don't have to change
'Cause I would always stay, if you were my Beyoncé

So be my diva, do that for me
I love the way you know what you need

You know you're perfect, don't have to change
'Cause I would always stay, if you were my Beyoncé

If you were my Beyoncé
If you were my Beyoncé
If you were my Beyoncé

'Cause every king's gonna need a queen
You're lighting up like I've never seen

You know you're perfect, don't have to change
'Cause I would always stay. if you were my Beyoncé

'Cause every king's gonna need a queen
You're lighting up like I've never seen
You know you're perfect, don't have to change
'Cause I would always stay, if you were my Beyoncé.
