

Here To Stay

Foolio

(Just Joe, ya know?)

They say she cheated on Lil 6 and fucked it all with his homie
They say them jits be killing fun for the love of Osama
I'm antisocial with my love, I'm better off as a loner
They say she fucked him and she sucked him for his fame and his money

(Ooh) How can you blame me who grew up this way?
(Ooh) Gave you my heart and then you ran away
(Ooh) What the fuck thought you was here to stay
I wonder would you fucking love me if I fucking died today
(Ooh) Swear sometimes I wanna fly away
(Ooh) Suicide, I wanna die today
(Ooh) Ayy, riding through the city with that Baby K
It's gon' be okay and after that I'll wipe my tears away

You took my loyalty, I witness and you took your advantage
How you my brother but you cut me, that's a crazy decision
You saw me have it the whole time, so why you play with my feelings?

You tried to go behind my back, that's why I'm keeping my distance

You counted thirty thousand for me, got it all from the mud
I got you whatever, whenever, cause I thought it was love
They couldn't tell me nothin' 'bout you, I was backing you up
They told me all them fucking rumors but I still didn't budge

(Ooh) How can you blame me who grew up this way?
(Ooh) Gave you my heart and then you ran away
(Ooh) What the fuck thought you was here to stay
I wonder would you fucking love me if I fucking died today
(Ooh) Swear sometimes I wanna fly away
(Ooh) Suicide, I wanna die today
(Ooh) Ayy, riding through the city with that Baby K
It's gon' be okay and after that I'll wipe my tears away
