September

For All Eternity

I'm searching for the right words to say, yet they all escape
Nothing deciphers what happened to me on this day
My love lay waste as my life is disgraced
All clarity is slowly decayed

Hopeless men carry broken hearts, weighed down by hurtful words
All I have is living in the past
I can't help but reflect

I recollect; once holding your hand
Not looking forward never looking back
Nothing in that moment lacked
Though now we're apart
I can't seem to restart
Emptiness is all I have

We were so madly in love
So much so that we could never be apart
We had the whole world out in front
Oh the tears I've shed knowing now that you're gone

I hope I never remember, the darkest day of september

Oh, for seven long years I built and you brought it down
Oh, for seven long years I bled and it meant nothing to you

How will I ever find the will, the will to rebuild
How will I ever find the will to rebuild without you
