

Suprapersonal

For the Fallen Dreams

No growth comes with comfort, and I'm living proof of that Change yourself and you'll begin to understand all the flaws in man

Open your mind and you'll find disappointments, failures
And humiliation, procrastination leads to greater liberation

Face down, heading for a breakdown
Do you like the taste now, how does it feel
Rip the stitch out can you feel the pain now
Got into your brain how, how does it feel for you

No eternity will cleanse your sin
Ever evolving while you weep within
You gotta search for solace while they follow the leader
If the win comes cheap the grass ain't greener
What's it worth to make your on way
Don't listen to what they say

Face down, heading for a breakdown
Do you like the taste now, how does it feel
Rip the stitch out can you feel the pain now
Got into your brain how, how does it feel for you

And it's something most just wouldn't understand
You gotta break these chains to find the essence of a man

You gotta break these chains to find the essence of a man
You gotta break these chains to find the essence of a man
You gotta break these chains to find the essence of a man
The essence of a man

Find the light, suprapersonal
Fight of flight, it's undeniable
Find the light, suprapersonal
Fight or flight, it's undeniable

Face down, heading for a breakdown
Do you like the taste now, how does it feel
Rip the stitch out can you feel the pain now
Got into your brain how, how does it feel for you
