

Testify

For the Fallen Dreams

I never think I'm where I wanna be
Anxiety comes naturally I'm building up immunity
That's how it's gotta be, it took a lot of me
Uncertain with the burden, now get it out of me

We never think were where we wanna be
But the cold hard truth it's our anatomy
If you wanna be more you need to open the door
Internally uncertain and it's rotten to the core

Fate, don't believe it
Unchained, couldn't see it
Before the fall
(You got this far and there's no turning back now)
Faith, I don't need it
Erased, couldn't see it
Before the fall
There's no turning back, now testify
Now testify

Mortality is certain predetermined with the burden
The choice to be a servant but we're learning
And we're earning everything that we got
The lies were told that stole our souls
The story folds controlled by gold alone in the cold

Fate, don't believe it
Unchained, couldn't see it
Before the fall
(You got this far and there's no turning back now)
Faith, I don't need it
Erased, couldn't see it
Before the fall
There's no turning back, now testify
Now testify
There's no turning back, now testify
