The Paths of Yesterdays

Forefather

On the fields of yesterdays, where many battle's been lost and won

Great domains of seasons passed, where many a deed was done Shining lands of yesterdays, deep down they will always be ours Mighty paths of epochs gone, with all their olden powers

Wooded hills of yesterdays, throughout our England's soil Forests vast of times surpassed, stretched out for mile on mile Potent earth of yesterdays, I know you will always be ours Earth of our fatherland, with all its olden powers

Olden paths of yesterdays, with their olden power Great domains of seasons passed, they will always be ours Mighty paths of epochs gone, throughout our England's soil Forests vast of times surpassed

Wooded hills of yesterdays, throughout our England's soil Forests vast of times surpassed, stretched out for mile 'on mil e

Potent earth of yesterdays, I know you will always be ours Earth of our fatherland, with all its olden powers
