

A Cardiac Winter

Foreign Hands

Frozen hearts beg to thaw from the warmth of halos
Bleed through the cracks from the inside out; unpicturesque love

Violence (Violence)
Passion (Passion)
Desire for every thorn

Can you keep your heart steady in my arms?

You invade dreams of fire
One halo for a cardiac winter

Contrition for ninety days in frostbite
Eyes are met with blackened skies of the night

Violence
Passion
Desire for every thorn

Can you keep your heart steady in my arms?
My arms and dreams of fire
