

Conditioned For A Head-On Collision

Foreign Hands

We collide, crash and burn
We abide, knowing all will be undone
It's all the same
An arson engulfed in silence
We collide, crash and burn
We abide, knowing all will be undone
It's all the same

Black ice on the crossroads
Night conceals revenge
Conditioned for a head-on collision

We embrace the burden (The burden)
From the heart (The heart)
This dissonance fractures what's left unsaid

We collide, crash and burn
We abide, knowing all will be undone
It's all the same
An arson engulfed in silence

Dispositioned
Dispositioned we collide
As fate strikes first with ill-intent
Life will never be the same again

Shadows take form
As the fire grows (As the fire grows)
Shadows take form (Taking form)
As the fire grows

We collide, crash and burn
We abide
It's all the same

We collide, crash and burn
We abide, knowing all will be undone
It's all the same
An arson engulfed in silence
We collide (We collide)
Crash and burn (Crash and burn)
We abide, knowing all will be undone
It's all the same
An arson engulfed in silence

This dissonance (Dissonance)
Fractures (Fractures)
What's left unsaid
