

Tearing Down Your Reality

Foreign Hands

Tear it down
Tearing down your reality
Tear it down
Tearing down your reality

You devise (You devise) a broken system
All in favor for all to fail
Manufactured by selfishness
Justify a necessary evil

Death to the ego
Reveal the soulless cast
Save your breath of a thousand words
I have no sympathy
No bleeding heart for you

Lay in ruin for all eyes to see the end
Lay in ruin for all eyes to witness
To see the end of you

Tear it down
Tear it all down
Tearing down your reality
Tear it down
Tear it all down
Tearing down your reality

You devise (You devise) a broken system
All in favor for all to fail
Manufactured by impulsive lies
Only to justify a necessary evil

Lay in ruin for all eyes to see the end
Lay in ruin for all eyes to witness
To see the end of you

Tear it down
Tear it all down
Tearing down your reality
Tear it down
