What's coming down
Don't look good to me
It's definable as critical
In webster's dictionary
But let's just say I got a feeling
That when this stuff hits the ceiling
At no time will my feet leave my ankles
At no time will my feet leave my ankles

I don't need really all that much
Big limousines and movie queens don't get me going as such
But when I can't vote for a president
And be total sure that he ain't bent
At no time will my feet leave my ankles

So I break off yeah I just take off
Anything that's bothering me
Sing you a love song hope it ain't long
Before the roses bloom in the afternoon
We gonna see them soon

If you don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down

So I break off yeah I just take off
Anything that's bothering me
Sing you a love song hope it ain't long
Before the roses bloom in the afternoon
We gonna see them soon

If you don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down

Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down

Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down

Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down

Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let 'em get you down
Don't let the long faced ugly mother wearing a frown get you down
