

Heaven's Telephone

Forest Blakk

I count my blessings at the speed of light
Window sills and the starry nights
There's so much that I don't know
Take a breath and then we count to ten
Close my eyes and play pretend
It's almost time for me to go

Cause I feel like I could climb the mountain tops
Tell everyone that I have come to love

So long, let me go
I know heaven's got a telephone
And I will call home whenever you'd like, whenever you'd like
So long, let me go
Cause I know heaven's got a telephone
And I will call home
Whenever you'd like

Can't count confessions that much I know
Hold my tongue but the truth be told
I don't know what I don't know
And it's okay to say goodbye
Warm hellos and our last goodnights
Painted lines and great divides

I will go to the place where my dreams have their ways
And the streets are all lined with gold
Where the fortunes of fate aren't locked behind gates
Like the stories that we've been told

So long, let me go
I know heaven's got a telephone
And I will call home whenever you'd like, whenever you'd like
So long, let me go
I know heaven's got a telephone
And I will call home whenever you'd like, whenever you'd like
So long, let me go
I know heaven's got a telephone
And I will call home whenever you'd like, whenever you'd like
Whenever you'd like

I count my blessings at the speed of light
Window sills and the starry nights
It's okay to close your eyes
And it's okay to close your eyes
