

Me

Forest Blakk

I'm just tryna be inspired
But it's harder when your brain's on fire
And I would try to lie, but I'm a bad liar
Tryna be me's like walking on a wire
I'm a little too much, but I gotta lot to give
Been tryna hold back ever since I was a kid
And for the first time when you look into my eyes
All I know is

You love, you love, you love all of me
You love, you love, you love all of me
Every second, every single minute
I'm done pretending
I'm something I don't want to be
'Cause you love, you love, you love all of me

Well, my therapist is saying that I'm fine
But she also says I'm running out of time
And maybe I should consider dating someone online
'Cause I'm an eight who likes the company of nines
So now I'm on Instagram swiping through enneagrams
Hinge and a dinner plan, hoping you'll take a chance
But I'm happy that I never gave up, cause

You love, you love, you love all of me
You love, you love, you love all of me
Every second, every single minute
I'm done pretending
I'm something I don't want to be
'Cause you love, you love, you love all of me

When I'm high when I'm low and
When I'm mixing emotions
Or getting lost in the moment
You love, you love, you love all of me
And I'll love you forever
'Cause I love us together
And every day's getting better
'Cause you love, you love, you love all of You love, you love, you love all of

'Cause you love, you love, you love all of me (Oh)
'Cause you love, you love, you love all of me (All of me)
Every second, every single minute
I'm done pretending
I'm something I don't want to be (Ooh)
'Cause you love, you love, you love all of me (All of me)
'Cause you love, you love, you love all of me
