

Compass

Forever In Your Mind

I know that I never got to tell you
Everything that you deserve to hear
Trapped inside a picture frame
Am I just another name
Hanging onto you, do you hear?
Got a million miles worth of sorries
Never took the chance to say goodbye
Reaching out across the blue
To put myself right back to you
Stuck here drawing maps across the sky

Hold on
Hold on for dear life
One last time

Hit by the waves
Caught in a shipwreck
Oh, I'm breaking for you
I may be lost
But my heart's the compass
Oh, it points back to you
It points back to you

I never should have taken you for granted
But should've would've could've never helps
I miss you being next to me
A victim of reality
Knowing that you might have someone else
We were always thinking bout tomorrow
But now I'm feeling stuck in yesterday
The comfort that we left behind
Is something that we lost in time
And now I'm gonna find another way

To hold on
Hold on for dear life
One last try

Hit by the waves
Caught in a shipwreck
Oh, I'm breaking for you
I may be lost
But my heart's the compass
Oh, it points back to you

It points back to you [x2]

I know that we tried
But somehow we fell from the sky
I just hope that time
Can breath our old wings back to life
Hit by the waves
Caught in a shipwreck

Hit by the waves

Oh, I'm breaking for you
I may be lost
But my heart's the compass

It points back to you [x2]
