

Smooth

Forever In Your Mind

I met my match in a pretty face
Feels like you're playing my part
Can't figure out if I like the chase
Can't figure out who you are

And all the mirrors always make me think about you
Cause I'm not used to losing at my own games
And all the mirrors show your face when I'm without you
It all starts to look the same (this way) this way

Taking my mind out of limbo
Throwing my pride out the window
Why do you keep on breaking rules?
I'm not the only one to make a move
Penny for a dime for the win, oh
Crossed another line like you didn't know
Why do you keep on breaking rules?
I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I met my match in a pretty face
Still wondering if you're real
Can't figure out if it's love or hate
Can't figure out how I feel

And all the mirrors always make me think about you
It all starts to look the same (this way) this way

Taking my mind out of limbo
Throwing my pride out the window
Why do you keep on breaking rules?
I'm not the only one to make a move
Penny for a dime for the win, oh
Crossed another line like you didn't know
Why do you keep on breaking rules?
I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

And as I play it all back in my mind
I start to wonder if you're here
Here this whole time
And as I play it all back in my mind
As I play it all back
[Backwards:] As I play it back in my mind

Taking my mind out of limbo
Throwing my pride out the window
Why do you keep on breaking rules?
I'm not the only one to make a move
Penny for a dime for the win, oh
Crossed another line like you didn't know

Why do you keep on breaking rules?
I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth

Oh baby
I guess I'm not the only one who's smooth
Yeah
