

Alone

Forever Still

I dreamed that love would pierce through my sorrow
I wished for a smile you'd never give

I'd leave my life behind just to see you
I long for an endless winter to pass

(Can you hear me?)

Raging
Aching
Drenched in my pain I try to Reach you
Praying
I won't be left alone again

I'm getting sick of waiting
For depths of dark to consume me
My soul has been left all hollow and torn

(Can you see me?)

Raging
Drenched in my pain I try to
Reach you
Praying

Why won't you let go of my heart?
When you're not here, not around
Don't let me stay this way

Raging
Drenched in my pain I try to
Reach you
Praying
I won't be left alone again

Don't think I will ask your forgiveness
Don't say crave your poisonous love
No need for your shallow embraces
I'll make it on my own again
