

Say Your Goodbyes

Forever Still

Something's gone wrong
Thoughts of it tear me to pieces
I don't belong
Here in the midst of these demons

It's so deep
Dark I'm
Far from the shore

And I can't swim
Can't get in
My heart weighs me down

But if I dream now
Closing my eyes
We could be free now
Love would suffice
So say your goodbyes

I ask myself
Is it enough just believing?
I never dreamt
Love could be cruel and deceiving

I can't stay
Relive this day
For all of my life

But you pull me close
And all this goes away
I can stay

And if I dream now
Closing my eyes
We could be free now
Say your goodbyes
Ripping a hole in
All the black drapes that
Held us tight from the start
And I beg don't let love

Tear holes in the pages
Of books that we've waited
To write but then
We're rewriting them
Every page that we turn
Is a lesson we've learned
We're not giving in

And if I dream now
Closing my eyes
We could be free now
Say your goodbyes
Ripping a hole in
All the black drapes that
Held us tight from the start
And I beg don't let love