

Survive

Forever Still

Something strange, unexplained
Sent shivers down my spine
Nothing changed, they remained
Uncared for by you with your cold, dead hands
Not that I thought you would understand

But you will remember how I can survive
I breathe in
I can't speak
But my mind is screaming why
I won't cry
Just leave me
I can't sleep
But I'm alive

Demons grow when you show
Affection for their kind
I pulled through all while you
Just stood there and watched as my world burned down
I'll rise from the ash when you're not around

And you will remember how I can survive
I breathe in
I can't speak
But my mind is screaming why
I won't cry
Just leave me
I can't sleep
But I'm alive

You break
You take
You make
Everything I thought was kind so fake
You're nothing but a snake
A great mistake
Pretend you never met me (now)

You break
You take
You make
Everything I thought was kind so fake
You're nothing but a snake
A great mistake
Remember to forget me

I can survive
I breathe in
I can't speak
But my mind is screaming why
I won't cry
Just lead me to my own demise

I've been down these roads before
Now I'll own my flaws without my disguise
Every shut and closing door
Made me want it more

And I can survive
