

Not For Me

Forth Wanderers

I'll lay down with you
Felt your breath
I don't care what is true
Against my chest
Your hands I slip through
More or less

I can't feel the earth beneath my feet
Flowers bloom but not for me
Ooh, ooh

I woke up with you
Put on my shoes
And left before you saw me
Though I swore you were only half asleep
Yeah, I left before you saw me
Before you could follow
I should have known
I should have known

Soaking wet I stand warm and free
Are you upset? I am
I think you see

I can't feel the earth beneath my feet
Flowers bloom but not for me
And left before you saw me
Though I swore you were only half asleep
Yeah, I left before you saw me
Before you could follow
I should have known
I should have known

I know you'll love me so, I take my time
I spend the night in your bed
I am bare and unread
Open and eager to the touch of your hand

I know you'll love me so, I take my time
I spend the night in your bed
I am bare and unread
Open and eager to the touch of your hand
