

Sip Neigh

Forth Wanderers

Find me somewhere new to show my face
Been lying in bed just for the wait
Nothing can hurt me more, nothing can ruin me now
Who are those new clothes for?
And I'll catch your eye somehow

Your heavy eyelids always bring a smile
Take me out with you, drive around for a while
I'll try real hard to keep my cool
I'll try real hard to look away from you
More bad news

I'll leave my friends hang with you instead
You'll mouth the words I replay in my head
Fuck my friends I'll hang with you instead
You showed me myself...
