

By One

Fousheé

Always on the road
Bitter when I'm home
Hear it in my tone
Patience is dangerously low
How could it come to this
I couldn't say
But it's clear in our distance
That this ain't no quick fix

Been waiting waiting waiting on you
Hoping and praying a change will soon
Been trying to save face
Now I'm faced with the truth
Built everything up just to loose

Where do we go
When we've come undone
Im too proud to stay
Care too much to run
I'm hurt and shows
You think I'm high strung
I wake and love you
Then hate you by 1

Why the sudden change
You never used to complain
I'm meticulous
You're indifferent
Im not trying to place blame
I'm just trying to stay sane
And I know we want the same thing
Not ready for another heartache but I can't Keep
Waiting waiting waiting on you
Time that's been wasted
It can't be un used
Trying to save face now I'm faced with the truth
Built everything up just to loose

Where do we go
When we've come undone
Im too proud to stay
Care too much to run
I'm hurt and shows
You think I'm high strung
I wake & love you
Then hate you by 1

We don't need another sad sad love song
One is too much, maybe if I wake up by Seven
There'll be six whole hours to amend

Where do we go
When we've come undone
Im too proud to stay
Care too much to run
I'm hurt and shows

You think I'm high strung
I wake & love you
Then hate you by 1

Hate you by 1
Oh
Hate you by 1
Oh I hate you
Oh I hate you
Hate you by 1
Oh