

Hazy

Fousheeé

Cherry blossom scented candle light
Dances in the moonlight like lost plans
Whispers over clasped hands
I'm made in your design
Decompression takes time
And I'm at a lack, requires peace of mind

Please
Be patient with me
Please
Be patient with me

And when we laid was layered
Fights and faux pas
Then undo my bra
Undo you too
I broke your fall
You broke my heart
These quarantine walls are a mirage
And so were you

Please
Be patient with me
Be patient with
(Please) please
Be patient with me
Be patient with me
Be patient
