Unexplainable
I won't say no more
I could stare in your eyes, those eyes
Eyes for hours and hours

You always doubt it
But can't go without us
Don't lie
There's ties

I try to drop hints
You'll switch the topic
We'll back bend on boundaries
We both know it's toxic

What are you trying to preserve?
Don't we deserve a chance
To get our flowers

You always doubt it
But can't go without us
Don't lie
There's ties
