

Baltimore

Fox Academy

Baltimore Ravens' colors in my head
First night of the year, Silence of the Lambs
Where is my cousin? What is he thinking?
What were you thinking? What were you thinking

Driving drunk to the hospital
What made you so hostile
Fish tank at McDonald's
This life feels impossible

Feels so good to scratch an itch
Feels like walls are closing in
Don't you end up like I did
Don't you end up like I did

Baltimore Ravens' colors in my head
Wonder around malls, sense of belonging
Comfort in a foreign room
Crisis in my favorite room
Mississippi, always count on you
Grand rapids and [?]
[?] under mountain's view

Feels so good to scratch an itch
Feels like walls are closing in
Don't you end up like I did
Don't you end up like I did
Don't you end up like I did
Don't you end up like I did
