

I'm warmer on the holidays
Parents sip their Chardonnay
Don't you want to be like you used to?
Harvard colors, poison spill
Leave like David Copperfield
Pepper on the trampoline
Wrapping paper money
Don't you want to feel like you used to?

Smaller next to monuments
Pilot never wants to land
I like it how your nose is shaped
The movies don't make me afraid
Why won't they leave you at home by yourself?
Sugar on my orange clothes
Sugar-covered Autumn clothes
Cartons of Drano
Tulip in your raincoat
Don't you want me to move around like I used to?

I separate myself
It doesn't sound nice
It doesn't sound nice
