Deja Vu

You'd make the difference if you wanted to You never really change do you? No, that ain't what you want to do

Yeah, Deja Vu You'd make the difference if you wanted to You never really change do you? No, you do what you want to do

Yeah, show 'em

These days I'm tryna enforce the value
Of what I think and what I am, yeah
Closed case I'm kinda just more without you
Now my affliction's worth a damn

Yeah, Deja Vu You'd make the difference if you wanted to You never really change do you? No, you do what you want to do

Yeah, show 'em
