

Give Them Hell

Fox Stevenson

They say I need to move slower
And that my hopes need to be lower
Any problems come back to you
And through this unflinching terror
I know that I'll be much better
And there was time for something new

Give them hell!
Don't give them anything else
I can tell it's gonna be a real good night
Cause they'll, they'll never take me alive
Hell yeah!
I'm gonna be losing my mind tonight!

I tried to make it clear, but it seems like they're nowhere near
I guess I'll have to try a little more
I reckon that we're better not knowing
Where we've been and where we've been going
But maybe I've said all that before

Give them hell!
Don't give them anything else
I can tell it's gonna be a real good night
Cause they'll, they'll never take me alive
Hell yeah!
I'm gonna be losing my mind tonight!
